

Description of Work:

The Correctional Intelligence Task Force (CITF), sponsored by the FBI, Federal Bureau of Prisons, and the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, is looking for experienced gang investigators and analysts to work in a dynamic federal-state-local task force environment to assist investigations and conduct intelligence analysis of gang members and their criminal enterprises in California, Nevada and Arizona. Join an important law enforcement team designed to detect and defeat threats and criminal activity originating from violent gangs operating in our prison systems and communities.

Salary:

Successful candidates will earn a starting salary commensurate with a GS-12 or GS-13 (with no anticipated opportunity for overtime). Candidates will use their personal vehicles to commute and travel for work and will receive reimbursement for mileage incurred outside of normal commuting distances.

Location:

Several positions are being staffed at the Correctional Intelligence Task Force HQ in Sacramento, California.

Additional positions are being staffed inside FBI field offices in Sacramento, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, and Phoenix.

Mandatory Qualifications:

- U.S. Citizenship
- Current Top Secret clearance (No SCI required. No polygraph required.)

Desired Qualifications:

- Six years of general investigative or intelligence analysis experience.
- Four years of specialized work experience focused on criminal enterprises, gangs and prison gangs, or an equivalent experience.
- A bachelor's degree in a relevant field of study, or, in substitute, an additional eight (8) years of specialized work experience focused on gangs or prison gangs.
- Experience handling classified information and accessing information in law enforcement or intelligence databases.
- Experience working with voluminous holdings of information derived from investigation or intelligence sources and producing high quality intelligence products and presentations.
- Experience working in a task force environment that may include FBI Violent Gangs and Safe Streets Task Forces, state and county correctional intelligence units and officers and gang experts within relevant local police departments.
- Strong communication skills and the ability to adapt to changing mission requirements.
